

Environmental Cleaning: Wolfe's Neck Woods State Park Freeport, Maine - July 26, 2007 Cleaning Starts @ Low Tide 2:30pm

This volunteer project will demonstrate the impact of fun, interactive, community programs have on the environment.

The goal is to improve the earth while building confidence, character, and community.

Objectives:

- To clean up trash on the beach generated from the Patriots Day storm
- To gain a better understanding of the state parks recycling efforts
- To demonstrate the positive results of collaboration and teamwork
- To learn that volunteering is fun
- To develop an awareness of how individual decision affect the marine environment
- To encourage better stewardship of the Earth

Point of Contact:
Mike Martin 944-9852

Apogee Adventures offers students between the ages of 11 and 18 unique and safe opportunities to have fun and make new friends while building confidence, character, and community through the Teenage Adventure Travel Program.

Touch Tanks for Kids is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt non-profit organization that is dedicated to finding solutions through environmental awareness and marine education.